COMM 1101: ASSIGNMENT 1 (Individual Work)

Essay writing

The National Listening Council of Malawi (NLCM) is looking for three Communication Skills students from Mzuzu University to help them in civic education across the country. The council wants to inform the general public that listening is a skill that should be taught with emphasis like other language skills. Convince the council in an essay that you are a good communicator and you can help in this exercise by demonstrating your understanding of the listening process and the types of listening. Show them how each type is important in society.
